SEVEN YEARS OF TORTURE

Headaches and Indigestion Ended by "Fruit-a-lives"

The Marvellous Fruit Medicine

Like thousands and thousands of other sufferers, Mr. Albert Varner of Buckingham, Pa., tried many remedies and went to doctors and specialists; but nothing did him any good.

Finally a friend advised him to try "Fruit-a-lives"—now he is well.

"For seven years, I suffered terribly from Headaches and Indigestion. I had been eating a bitter fruit medicine, and it was doing me no good. I was terribly constipated. I took Fruit-a-lives and this great fruit medicine made me well."

Box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

SCHOOL FAIR SHORT COURSE

The Short course for the boys and girls having the best exhibits at their School Fair last autumn will be held at Olds, July 9th to 14th inclusive.

Classes in Agricultural and Home Economics subjects, will be held daily, as well as organized sports, games and military drill. Motion pictures, radio concerts, etc., will provide evening amusement. Pupils will be fed and quartered at the school the same as last year and will be under direct supervision of members of the Staff at all times.

All expenses, including transportation from distant points, will be paid. Those within motoring distance from Olds will likely be able to find a parent or friend who will be willing to provide transportation. Transportation is the big item of expense, and an endeavor is being made to keep it as low as possible.

The Short Course is very popular. It is a great stimulus to School Fair work and is showing many advantages and possibilities of a course at the Agricultural School.

This year 100 boys and girls will attend the Short Course. The following will attend from the Agricultural School: Red Deer School Fair Centre: Blanche Vickers, Sylvia Kirk, Gordon Parker, Robert Homan.

Sylvan Lake School Fair Centre: Catharine Morrison, Muriel Carri, William Stockman, Archie Brinkley. Should any be unable to attend, alternatives will be substituted.

POLICY HOLDERS' MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Amalgamates With The Ontario Equitable Life and Accident Company.

An agreement has been completed for the amalgamation of The Policy Holders' Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Toronto, with The Ontario Equitable Life and Accident Company, of Waterloo.

The Policy Holders' Mutual Company was organized in 1869 by A. M. Featherston, who is Managing Director, and has made a splendid growth, having at present over seven million dollars of insurance and assets of six hundred thousand dollars. Its new business written for the first four months of 1923 is more than fifty per cent. in advance of the corresponding months of last year.

The Ontario Equitable Life and Accident Company has insurance in force amounting to over fourteen million dollars, and assets of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In addition to this four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, there is an authorized capital of two million dollars, with one million and twenty thousand dollars subscribed. Nine hundred and eighty thousand dollars, of which is still uncollected, making a further asset of nine hundred and eighty thousand dollars, and a security to the policy holders. In addition to this the available assets are over a million one hundred thousand dollars.

It will be noted that the amalgamation is between two life companies, and the future for the amalgamated company is very bright. A. M. Featherston will become the Vice-President of The Ontario Equitable Company, and a number of The Policy Holders' Mutual Directors will join the Equitable Board. The combined business of the two companies is now over twenty-two million dollars. There will be no change in any way in the terms of policies; all contracts will be carried out by The Ontario Equitable Company, according to their original terms. Some of the figures from the 1922 statements of the two companies are as follows:

Mortgages—Ontario Equitable,	$4,550,000; Policy Holders', $125,000.
Real Estate—Ontario Equitable,	$37,875,000.
Bonds and Debentures—Ontario Equitable,	$261,110,000; Policy Holders', $203,164,000.
Policy Loans—Policy Holders' $62,	362,000.
Cash—Ontario Equitable,	$16,104,000.

A SOD HOUSE

By Percy H. Wright.

Allen was building his home. He was prodigiously happy. He saw all the good things that were to come, and the good things that were to be his. He was so happy that he did not notice that he was building a sod house.

What did it matter that it was only a sod house? He did not notice that he was building a sod house. He was so happy that he did not notice that he was building a sod house.

"Dear Joan," I have found the perfect place for me. You don't know how beautiful it is here! I have found a location in the park, in a lovely rolling ground interspersed with broad level places over which you look. I have chosen a high spot for our home, and yet there is a small lake not far off. To be near water, and to live on a high place where one can see great stretches, have always been deep desires in my heart.

"I have chosen the exact place for the better house that is going to be, subject to your approval when you see it. But I am not making a mistake. I am poring on it, for I want a new clean place for it.

"I am so glad that God made this marvelous world to be a refuge for the overworked peoples of other lands, before you and I will find here the perfect environment. After my experience of the city, I feel that this is a return to Nature, and a natural mode of living. We will not have to compete in the great gathering places of competition, the cities, where real food and real leisure are unobtainable, and where a family is out of place as a bird's nest in a city. We will eat our own produce, and sitting on our veranda in the shade of the evening, watch the rest of the world go by.

"Oh, I am enthused with it all. The freedom! The Nature! The out-door life, but best of all, with the great big job I have tackled, a man's job, with the prospect of our love and companionship together in this place.

"The sun shines brightly on us, my dear. The days are actually going by with speed that is amazing. We are all too slow in my desire for the realization of my dreams. Come future—and you!

"For, dear Joan, though I am very happy in my work, I miss your presence so much that my hope of having it soon is a very small consolation.

"Good bye, your everestadfast lover, Allen."

That evening, in the shack of his hospitable neighbor, Avery, he wrote the letter he had planned, and now lay back in the East, Miss Joan had received it.

She reads it without showing either joy or displeasure. She looks at it steadily, with a slightly concerned expression.

Seeking her father in his easy chair in the library, she gives him the letter, saying in a matter-of-fact way: "Here Dad, I'll allow you to read this one this time."

He was long, boy man, with wise, grey eyes. He took the letter, and proceeded to read it slowly.

Joan sat down on a chair in the corner, waiting for him to finish and make his comment. Now and then he would seem to be mentally marking a significant phrase.

"This, my Joan, is quite like what I would have expected of him. Evidently he has struck a pretty good thing, and has an eye for the beauty of it, and he is very happy in his expectations. But, taking his letter as a whole, I find it very impractical. All through the letter I sense it. He does not know farm conditions and that farmers compete as much or more than any other class. He has made two great mistakes in management already. He should have taken his homestead in the open prairie where he would not have to clear it. On the plains he would make as much progress in three years, as he will in a dozen in the park country. And, secondly, he has started without enough capital, as his use of the sod house shows. He should have worked out another year and obtained a larger sum to begin with. Did you not tell me that he had only four hundred? That is wholly inadequate. It takes three thousand dollars at least to properly equip a farm, and then an interest on that sum, it is necessary that a large acreage be served by the equipment—at least three hundred acres.

As he is situated, he will clear ten acres this year, and add another ten next year, and his farm will be a money loser and energy user all that

Woman Lifted to Affluence By Derby Win

London, June 6.—A little sweepstakes ticket, combined with Derby luck, has placed a fortune of $23,000 in the lap of a Yorkshire woman mill worker, Mrs. Nellie Ford, by name, who drew Papyrus in the Oley club's 25000 sweepstakes, in which more than 200,000 players had taken a chance.

Mrs. Ford is described as a hard-working woman, who has spent most of her life working in a mill in order to help support her large family. Yesterday she was offered $23,000 for her chance but refused, as she had a dream that fortune awaited her. The second prize of $12,000 and the third of $8,000 were won by two men of moderate means.

Several others have been lifted from penury to easy street by the luck of drawing winning horses in the numerous other sweepstakes held in England. A London man won $12,000 in the Meat Dealers' sweepstakes, of which, he announces, he will give one-third to a fund being raised to aid the city hospitals. A young stenographer is better off $21,000 by winning the prize offered in the Cork hospital fund, and a street cleaner won a like sum in another draw.

The Calcutta and London stock exchange sweepstakes have not yet been announced. The former is worth $30,000 and the latter $25,000. It is estimated that a quarter of a million pounds sterling has been won in the big public sweepstakes, while huge sums have changed hands through those conducted on a smaller basis.

Mount Robson National Park holds for the tourist and explorer new trails through new wonderful lands in a great unspoiled Alpine kingdom, where nature and beauty vie with each other. It is a country abounding in big things: majestic peaks, deep canyons and water falls. In fact, it is doubtful if anywhere in an equal area such mountain scenery and wonder features can be found. Camps are located in Mount Robson Park for accommodation of tourists, where saddle horses and pack horses are available. An observation platform has been constructed by the Canadian National Railway, at Mount Robson station, where all trains stop for a few minutes to afford travellers the opportunity of viewing this vast and amazing territory. Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, is plainly seen from the train. The "Continental Limited" en route to the Pacific Coast traverses this new playground, and for many miles follows the North Thompson and Fraser rivers, remarkable in beauty and interesting in history. Mountain observation cars, composed largely of glass, are attached to the "Continental Limited." This new innovation on the Mountain Division of Canadian National Railway allows travellers to view the scenery on both sides of the track and afford protection from sun or rain.

Mrs. Thomas has been in Lacombe for a few days.
Miss Kathleen Randall is our district contestant for popular choice in the Lacombe Carnival, and will sure get the votes from this part.
Whenever there's a stranger in town we hope they are looking at the elevator site or the lumber yard, now that a more optimistic spirit is in the air.

P. BURNS BLOCK EXCHANGED FOR $40,000 RANCH
The Giesgarran ranch, which consists of 32,000 acres of "blue" land and valued at $400,000 has been purchased by the P. Burns Co. Ltd., according to an announcement made Friday. The packing company will exchange the P. Burns block in East Calgary for the farm lands, the block also being valued at $400,000.
It is understood that Mr. Burns will stock the ranch with Hereford cattle. The ranch was first started 32 years ago by McKenzie, Mann & Co., was purchased in 1913 by the Investment Realty company of London, England, who, up until a few days ago, were still the owners.

PRIEST SENT TO JAIL

Rev. Father Stacey, of Hanna, was committed for trial on a charge of indecent assault, and was allowed out on $10,000 bail, at a preliminary hearing held recently at Hanna. The complaint was a Polish woman recently come to Canada, who lived at the home of the priest to ask him to consent to her marriage to a Protestant.

TERMINAL ELEVATOR SCREENINGS

Shipments of screenings from the terminal elevators at the head of the lake now carry grain inspectors' certificates of character. Mr. George H. Clark, Dominion Seed Commissioner, explains that this method "can be into effect two years ago, when under the Feeding Stuffs Act a classification of screenings was adopted termed "Standard Recleaned Screenings" covering shipments found to contain not more than three percent of fine weed seeds. Since this classification was put into force, it has been found that screenings are graded rarely contain more than one per cent. of the objectionable materials.
Last year more than fifty thousand tons of "Standard Recleaned Screenings" were sold for seed purposes and report has been received of any injury to the health of live stock. These screenings were proved to contain on the average about 48 per cent. of broken and churched wheat and 41 percent of wild buckwheat. This condition varies with the season and with the source of origin. Recleaned screenings from wheat grown in north-eastern Saskatchewan and Manitoba normally contain a higher percentage of wild buckwheat than do screenings from wheat grown in the drier areas. Wild buckwheat is proximately cultivated buckwheat in feeding value, but its black seed coat imparts a dark appearance to ground screenings, and on that account is liable to meet with objections at first from feeders.
Mr. Clark states that "Standard Recleaned Screenings" should always be very finely ground and, while a comparatively inexpensive and wholesome feed for mature stock, when the mustered seed content is not more than one percent, should never be fed to young pigs or calves.
There is also segregated at the terminal elevators a screenings product known as "Oat Scalpings," composed chiefly of wild oats, with a small percentage of cultivated oats, wheat, and other coarse grains, which is practically free from fine weed seeds, and which is shipped out bearing grain inspector's certificate under that title.
As only "Standard Recleaned Screenings" and "Oat Scalpings" have been given a commercial status, Mr. Clark says purchasers should always specify what they require, in order to avoid getting material inferior to "Elevator Screenings" and which actually contains an excess of the fine black weed seeds.

BARDWELL-WYLIE

Mr. T. O. Bardwell, manager of the Atlas Lumber Co. yard at Benito, was married at the Presbyterian Manse, Red Deer by Rev. W. G. Brown, on Saturday, June 2, 1923, to Miss Irene Wylie, also of Benito. The young couple will take up their residence at Benito, and will have the best wishes of many friends in town and district.

EDWELL

Everyone is looking forward to a bumper crop. Some are complaining about the wet weather.
Loud explosions have been heard on Mr. Davis's ranch. Mr. Hadley is in charge of blasting operations. We understand they have hit a good supply of water at last.
Connah Bros. are sure breaking up their farm: they are putting 40 acres of spring breaking into oats. They have been in the district one year and will soon have their farm all under cultivation. George was a large cattle rancher in Southern Alberta, before coming to Edwell.
Edwell cattle men are going strong on Short horns this season. Mr. J. Malsbury attended the bull sale at Lacombe last week and purchased a few Short horns, "Allendale," to head his famous dairy herd.
Mr. C. Comer has made quite an improvement to his herd by disposing of his scrub bull and getting a purebred Short horn.
Mr. P. Neilson purchased 50 head of cattle last week, mostly yearlings. Tom showed good judgment in buying cattle instead of a car as he anticipated.
Our two local trappers have returned after spending a vacation at Banff, and have taken a contract to clear 50 acres of land for Wm. Malsbury, which he intends breaking this season.
Mr. Riley and Mr. Ellis are running a large bunch of cattle on the school section. They report pasture scarce owing to a large bunch of horses of no value running here from Horn Hill.
We hear Mr. P. O. Graham is anticipating a trip to the States soon.
Mr. Chas. McPhee has added 158 acres to his farm.
Mr. Ferguson had two visitors from Calgary over last week-end. They report crops better at Edwell than anywhere along the line.
Mr. Jack Letthead holds the Edwell record for weight on the pig he shipped last week. Jack can raise pigs, anyway.

Hadley Concert Company at Red Deer Chautauqua

Lovers of good music will welcome the Hadley Concert Company—one of the finest concert companies on the continent—on the last day of Chautauqua week. This company appears just because it marks the climax of one of the finest Chautauqua programs ever presented in the West. The members will give a prelude in the afternoon and a full program at night.
The Hadley Concert Company has been recruited from the ranks of the most experienced concert artists on the continent. Each member is a thorough musician, and appeals to the popular taste without lowering the high standards of Chautauqua.
The repertoire will include oratorio, opera, quartets, with instrumental and vocal ensemble numbers. Classical selections, too, will be rendered; the company rising to its best work in the superb "Sextet from Lucia," in which the voices show excellent volume and purity of tone. The program will include also many lighter and even humorous compositions.
There are seven members in the company, the principals being Grant Hadley, bass; Margaret Hadley, soprano; Rhoda Yule, contralto; Lorraine Earnest, violinist; and Henry Wotton, tenor. The members are all stars in the musical world and will undoubtedly give one of the best musical treats ever given in Red Deer.

ECKVILLE SPORTS

The Eckville Community Sports scheduled for June 4, and which were postponed on account of the rain, will be pulled off on Wednesday, June 13. A good programme has been arranged, and with favorable weather there will be a big crowd at Eckville that day. Quite a number of the Red Deer people are going out, particularly the trap shooters.
